To complete the application process:

1. You must submit a letter of interest with this application.
2. Two references are required, preferably from employers or professors/teachers rather than family members or friends. Please have your reference use the Intern Reference Form. Reference Forms are to be sent by your reference directly to the Center for Outdoor Ethics in a separate envelope. We cannot process your application until we receive these forms from your references.
3. Place this completed application form, including your letter of interest in an envelope and mail it to: The Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics, P.O. Box 997, Boulder, CO 80306. If you have questions, call 303.442.8222.

Additional considerations:

- Internships with the Center are generally unpaid.
- Internships vary in length from a few weeks to six months. Length of internship and daily hours are negotiable.
- The Center for Outdoor Ethics is an equal opportunity employer.

We will be in touch with you as soon as possible. Thanks for applying!
